

Describing your place

*I can ask about a house or apartment.
I can describe my house or apartment.*

1 VOCABULARY

A Match the words or phrases in the box with the pictures. Write the numbers next to the words.

<input type="checkbox"/> bathtub	<input type="checkbox"/> bed	<input type="checkbox"/> closet	<input type="checkbox"/> dishwasher
<input type="checkbox"/> refrigerator	<input type="checkbox"/> carpet	<input type="checkbox"/> shower	<input type="checkbox"/> stove

B Put the words above into the correct columns.

Kitchen	Bathroom	Bedroom

2 CONVERSATION

A Listening

Do you live in a house or an apartment? What's your house/ apartment like?

Listen to a conversation and answer the questions. Write T (true) or F (false).

- There is a new stove in the kitchen. _____
- There are two bathtubs in the apartment. _____

3

Now practice the conversation with a partner.

Mike Here's the kitchen. There's a new stove.

Sarah Beautiful! How many bathrooms are there?

Mike There are 2. Over here is one of them.

Sarah Wow! It's huge! Is there a bathtub in the other bathroom?

Mike No, but there's a shower.

Sarah I like the apartment. There are so many rooms.

B

Match 1-4 with a-d to make complete sentences or questions.

1 There's a are there?

2 How many bathrooms

b a bathtub?

3 There are

c a new stove.

4 Is there

d two bathrooms.

C

Language to learn

Asking about a house or apartment	Responding
What's your apartment like?	It's very convenient.
How many bathrooms are there?	There are two bathrooms.
Is there a bathtub in the other bathroom?	No, there isn't. But there's a shower.

3

PRACTICE

Practice 1: Work in pairs. Take turns describing Ana's apartment. Look at the examples.

Examples

There's a living room.

There's a TV in the living room, but there isn't a bookshelf.

Practice 2: Work in pairs. Complete the conversations with the questions. Then practice with a partner.

What's your new apartment like?

How many bedrooms are there?

Is there a dining room?

Are there any bathtubs?

1

A

Yes, there is. It's very modern.

2

A

It's small, but very convenient.

3

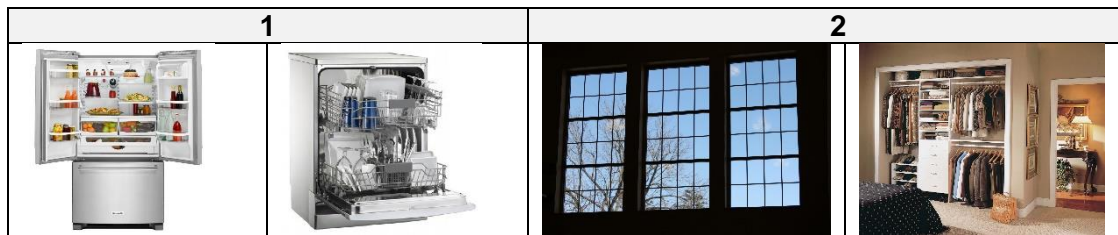

A

B

There are two small bedrooms.

- 4      A _____
          B No, there aren't, but there's a shower.

Practice 3: Work in pairs. Practice the conversation again. Use different words.

- A: This is the kitchen, and there's a new stove<sup>(1)</sup>.
B: How many bathrooms are there?
A: There are two bathrooms. Here's one of them.
B: It's big! Is there a bathtub in the other bathroom?
A: No, there isn't. But there's a shower.
B: I like the apartment. There are a lot of rooms<sup>(2)</sup>.

Practice 4: Work in pairs. Role play the conversation. Then change roles.

Student A            You want to rent an apartment. Write three questions to ask the owner.            1 _____            2 _____            3 _____            Start the conversation with 'What's the apartment like?' and end the conversation with 'Thanks. I'll think about it.'	Student B            You have an apartment to rent. Complete the information below.            Location: _____            Number of rooms: _____            What's in the kitchen, bathroom:            _____            _____
---	--

4

PROGRESS CHECK

- 1 What do you say to ask about a house or apartment?
 2 What do you say to describe your house or apartment?

Today I can ...

- ☐ ask about a house or apartment.
☐ describe my house or apartment.